SUIT AGAINST BOLLIN BOND: MEN GOES OVER

Judge Sabinah Grants the Request of the City Attorney and Postpones the Trial Until November 15.

Judge Sabinah yesterday postponed the trial of the suit brought by the city to recover the amount of ex-City Treasurer Bollin's default from his bondsmen until November 15, a week earlier than the date asked for by the city. Expert testimony was given by the city attorney, who was to give his testimony. The trial will be begun on the date set.

"I want to warn you, gentlemen, that this is the last postponement I will grant," the court announced to the counsel.

The postponement was granted upon the written showing from City Attorney Connel that the city was absolutely unable to proceed to trial. The city attorney, who was to give his testimony, was to give his testimony. The trial will be begun on the date set.

On this showing City Attorney Connel asked for a postponement to November 22. He said that in spite of any testimony, the city would not be able to give its testimony. The trial will be begun on the date set.

GERMANS WILL BE ON HAND AT EXPOSITION

Drawings of a Proposed Building to Be Exhibited at a Celebration to Be Held Early Next Month.

The German-American citizens of Omaha are making preparations to properly celebrate, on October 5, the landing of the first German settlers in Pennsylvania. The celebration will be held in Germania hall, commencing at 8 p. m., and will comprise a concert, participated in by the Orpheus Singing society, the Zither club and other local talent, and a theatrical performance in German.

During the evening a grand tableau will be presented, typifying the Transmississippi Exposition. The twenty-four states and territories in the transmississippi region will each be represented by a young woman and the entire group will be under the protecting arm of Columbia, personified by a well known Omaha woman.

Speeches by Jacob Beck and Francis Martin, the latter the editor of the Germania Zeitung, will complete this portion of the entertainment, the whole concluding with a ball.

The German-American Transmississippi association will take an active part in the celebration, and steps will be taken to arouse the 30,000 German-Americans in the immediate vicinity of Omaha.

The importance of the great exposition which is almost at hand. This association was organized and incorporated several months ago for the purpose of advancing the interests of the German-Americans in Nebraska.

Handsome drawings representing the building it is proposed to erect on the exposition grounds, at the corner of 16th and F streets, will be on display at the celebration.

The drawings will show a building of irregular form, about 200 feet in length along the street, and having a depth of about 100 feet. This building will represent the various styles of architecture among the historic buildings in the German quarter of the city.

The interior of the building will be arranged to represent a characteristic German concert hall with a stage on which will be light entertainments such as are seen among the high class German resorts in the larger cities of the "fatherland."

A restaurant for the dispensing of German delicacies will be given space in the building and there will also be reading rooms for the use of visitors.

The committee having charge of the celebration of the landing of the first German settlers in Nebraska, has been requested to bring with them their banners to be used in decorating the hall where the celebration is to be held.

STRIKING FOR BETTER RATES.

Chain Gang Insists on Better Quality of Food.

The prisoners in the city jail went on a strike yesterday. For a time there was considerable excitement among police headquarters.

The prisoners who metaphorically "walked out" were those which belong to the chain gang. Their names are Joe Rockbud, John May, Frank Bennett, Joe Marr and Berton Green.

The trouble started shortly after breakfast, when the prisoners who were in charge of the city hotel, told him that they would work no more unless proper food were furnished.

Dibbern went over the bill of fare and could find no fault with it. Rockbud had been given half a loaf of bread. The bread was stale and was offered moist.

At 2 o'clock Special Officer Gibson summoned his men to go to work, but there was a silent strike. He said he would rather work than absorb the sewer gas of the place, so he was accompanied.

The men stood firm in their position. Just how long the strike will continue is a matter of conjecture with the officers. The men will not leave until they are served with their sentences and should they continue obstinate their chances for life imprisonment are good.

Preparing for Paying.

At the meeting of the Advisory Board yesterday afternoon the street railway company was instructed to proceed at once to reconstruct its tracks on Sixteenth street from Pierce to Union so that the contractor can proceed with the rebuilding.

The only other business transacted was the adoption of a resolution by which Charles Redel was authorized to purchase a truck wagon for the use of the fire department in hauling supplies.

Southern Republic May Come.

President Watters has received from the president of Nicaragua a very cordial reply to the official letter of invitation sent through the Department of State for the federal government. The Nicaraguan president accepts the invitation and says he will at once take steps to secure an appropriate number of delegates to the exposition in a manner which will be creditable to it and satisfactory to the exposition management.

Stolen Property Recovered.

A quantity of stolen goods were recovered from the house of C. G. Underwood, Twenty-fifth and California streets, last Thursday night was recovered by the police yesterday. It was reported by Glenn Teal, a boy who resides at 2601 North Twenty-sixth street, that he had found the stolen goods in the house of Underwood.

The property has been identified and consists of one-half dozen silver spoons and the same number of silver spoons, besides a silver mug and other articles.

Individual Labor Trouble.

William R. Israel and William D. Ritchey, union paper hangers, were arrested for assaulting William Johnston, a non-union man. About a week ago the two men met Johnston near the corner of Seventeenth and St. Mary's avenue and accused him of being a scab. Johnston replied and the trio were soon engaged in a row. Johnston now files a complaint against the others.

Charged with Incontinency.

Mary Hinchey, a daughter of Mrs. Hinchey, living near Elmore and Ash streets, was charged yesterday for incontinency. The girl has been employing her time by running away and thus causing her parent unnecessary trouble. The girl refuses to stay at home, but she is willing to get a position with some family.

DEMOCRATS SELECT THEIR DELEGATES

Nineteen Delegations in Seven Wards Promise to Bring on a Hot Fight in the Democratic Primaries Today.

The petitions that were filed with the democratic county central committee Tuesday for delegations to be voted on at the primaries today represent as liberal a showing of party fight and conflicting elements as has been turned loose in a local primary fight in years. There are nineteen distinct delegations in seven of the nine wards of the city and a red hot fight is in prospect.

In the Second and Ninth compromise tickets have been agreed on. In the Fifth, Sixth and Eighth there are three hot tickets in the field and the remaining wards have two each. The fight seems to be almost entirely on the head of the ticket, with Harry Miller, Richard Engelmann and T. H. Todhunter heading the opposing factions.

While there are any number of patriotic democrats who would be willing to accept a nomination for one of the lesser offices there is so much uncertainty in regard to fusion arrangements that there is very little disposition to get out and hustle for a nomination which might be donated to another party if the conventions succeed in getting together.

On the face of the returns as exhibited in the list of delegates there is every indication that the machine is quietly plugging for Harry Miller and letting its promises to the other candidates go by the board.

The Miller delegation. The saloon keepers are all in the field. The saloon keepers are all in the field. The saloon keepers are all in the field.

The second ward delegation shows Lee Herdman and Adam Sloop paired with Tom Flynn and Dave Shanahan and this would be a harmony with a vengeance if it was only true.

The delegation is supposed to be for Elissar for register of deeds and the members will fight it out as they like it on the part of the county commission.

It is stated that it is G. F. Elissar, the brother of the present officer, who is the candidate of the ward. Peter Elissar having withdrawn his candidacy.

All the delegations, however, have been sprinkled with men who are supposed to be susceptible to a stampede to El Howell for sheriff in case the proper emergency presents.

Corliss is Endorsed.

At a regular meeting of the Dave Mercer Southside Republican club Tuesday evening at the club room in Park Forest hall, a motion to endorse Frank W. Corliss for county commissioner was unanimously adopted.

The next meeting will be held October 2, when the republican candidates for office and good speakers will be in attendance.

Poster in the Race.

There is a new candidate in the field for the position of county commissioner from the First district in the person of A. C. Foster, formerly a member of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners. He has notified his friends that he is to be considered in the race for the republican nomination.

CASH PREFERABLE TO TICKETS.

Instances showing the methods that the gate keepers adopted in the handling of State fair funds continue to multiply quite rapidly.

On Thursday of last week George W. Holbrook drove out to the grounds and approached the horse gate. He jumped out of his buggy and started toward the ticket office. The gate keeper called out and asked Mr. Holbrook where he was going. Mr. Holbrook replied that he was going to purchase a ticket, whereupon he was informed that it was not necessary, that he could pay his money and pass into the grounds and approach the horse gate.
